

HAMSHIRE & MOSSER, Proprietors.
DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

Entered as the Post Office at Decatur, Illinois, as second class mail matter.

Ten years ago we were in the midst of great excitement from the failure of Jay Cooke & Co. and other leading business houses. The wonderful changes of ten years show the marked power of recuperation from disaster and general ruin at that time threatened.

EX-Secretary Everts predicts that the tariff and civil service reform will be the paramount issues in the Presidential campaign next year. He believes that the people of both parties are in favor of the latter, but the politicians do not view it with favor. In regard to the tariff, the Democrats do not know what they want, not being agreed among themselves, while the Republican party is solid for a protective tariff, and will stand squarely on that platform. The doctrine held by the Democratic party, whether avowed free trade or tariff for revenue only, could not but work degradation to labor and ruin to the interests of the country. It is to foster and protect the industries of the country that the present tariff exists, while at the same time raising sufficient revenue to cover the annual expenditures of the Government. These views are fully confirmed by the Republican conventions held this year, which have unanimously declared in favor of protection for American industry. On the other hand, the Democratic conventions have all acquitted in the direction of free trade. As for civil service reform, the Democratic clinging tenaciously to the doctrine that "to the victors belong the spoils."

A Little Too Frequent.
Postmaster Le has discovered that some people of this community are little too prone in the use of the 2-cent postage stamps, which causes much annoyance in the office. It should be remembered that not until October 1 will 2-cent stamps be good for letter postage, and till then every letter must have a 3-cent stamp on it.

The opening of the Central and South American Telegraph Company's lines for business occurs to day. It connects with our system at Galveston. President Arthur sends a congratulatory dispatch to the Emperor of Brazil. Our intercourse with the South American States is not what it ought to be, and if the business of the new line proves sufficient to justify its construction, it may be taken as an indication that matters are improving in that respect. (Globe Dem., 2d.)

The business men of Cincinnati are called upon by their Chamber of Commerce by the Commercial Gazette to practically express their opinion as to whether the attempt of the newspaper to injure another financially by improved statements is permissible. The business men of Cincinnati will undertake a big work of reform when they fairly lack this subject.

The Maine Greenbackers in state convention have adopted resolutions reaffirming the Chicago platform of 1892, and opposing fusion with the Democracy.

The Indianapolis Journal, of yesterday, prints a long letter from Gen. Law Wallace, United States Minister to Turkey, giving his version of the Battle of Shiloh. It will be of interest to old soldiers.

Brins at the head of a strong Government does not always insure one's personal safety. It is said that Prince Bismarck was grieved during his stay at Kissingen by six Bavarian guardsmen, six Prussian policemen, one Bavarian Commissioner of Police, one Prussian Police Commissioner from Berlin, four detectives from Munich, and two from Wurzburg. Their duty was to watch the Chancellor during his three hours' walk on the promenade, and to prevent unknown persons from approaching him by day or by night. Think of President Arthur's body-guard to the Yellowstone Park consisting of General Sheridan and "Bob" Lincoln!

A new flying machine has been constructed in England and subjected to a trial which the inventor declared to be wholly satisfactory. It is propelled by steam, first on the land until a velocity of thirty to thirty-five miles is attained, when it is, by means of a fan, projected into the air. The machine is made of light wood, with a frame like that of a four-wheeled carriage, and has two large wheels in front and two small ones behind, with a fine bit of wire for the air. The inventor thinks he can easily travel at the height of one mile.

Yard with fine finished Blondest Muslin at 6 1/2 cents, north 100 yds, yard wide Unbleached Muslin at 4 1/2 and 5 1/2 cents, from the recent great auction sales in New York and we will sell them at any other place sold here. (Decatur New York News, Sept. 21-dawit)

You can buy Tea, Coffee, Spices, Chocolate and Baking Powder at remarkably low prices at Dan's Tea and Coffee Store, south side city park. 10-16

Ladies call and see these lovely Jersey Suits at John Hines Sept. 21-dawit

See Dan's new patent process flour never on hand in Decatur, and will make more bread to the people than any other flour sold here. (Decatur New York News, Sept. 21-dawit)

Special Dispatches

POINTS POLITICAL

Ex-Governor Hendricks Views on the Iowa and Ohio Campaigns.

Absolute Prohibition the Republican Party's Cry in Iowa—The Whole Democratic Ticket in that State Likely to be Elected—Negroes in Convention—News Summary.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—"Yes, I have just returned from the Iowa campaign," said Ex-Governor T. A. Hendricks at the Grand Pacific yesterday. "I cannot consent to be interviewed, however, for I have nothing to say now. Oh, yes, the temperance question is the most important in the Iowa campaign. The Republican party is taking the prohibition side of the question. Formerly there was a high prohibition taxation on the sale and manufacture of all liquors except ale, beer and wine. Now the Republicans propose to extend the tax to ale, wine and beer. I really don't know whether the same stand is taken by the Republican party in Ohio or not. Absolute prohibition is surely its cry in Iowa. The canvass in that state is being vigorously carried on by the Democrats, and they feel very confident of electing Mr. Kilne for governor. I went to Iowa to pay the political debts I owe Mr. Kilne. He has been very efficient in Indiana when we have been in political extremity. I therefore felt it my duty to do what I could for him at this time. Mr. Kilne will be elected beyond a doubt, and the rest of the Democratic ticket has, I consider, every reason to be confident of election. I was amazed and delighted with the increasing prosperity and wealth of Iowa. It is difficult to give any sort of adequate idea of its great agricultural productiveness. It is truly a great state."

POLITICS IN MASSACHUSETTS.
"What do you suppose was Henry L. Pierce's reason for leaving the Republican nomination in Massachusetts?" "I really don't know what to think about it. It may be politically significant, but we cannot tell that yet. Butler will be re-elected, I think, and he is popular, and gets the vote of the masses of the people of both parties. He is a go-ahead, daring, brilliant fellow, very much like your Mayor. He is a man who will keep right on in his course, without regard to whom he tramples on. He is ordinarily successful and always popular. I have heard that Butler refused to run against Pierce. None of them can beat Butler, however."

"What about the Ohio campaign, Mr. Hendricks?" "I can say nothing to the point on that subject, but I have not been in Ohio or seen any Ohio men since the campaign began, though the Democrats are cheerful there. I believe."

"The issue of the Ohio campaign is to be the tariff question," said Editor J. B. McLaughlin, of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, who was enjoying the conversation of the affable second-hand of the "old clock." "For revenue purposes, Congressmen Frank Hard and Mr. McLaughlin are in the state." "I am not sure that little old fellow, on which hinges the great issue of the two parties," "The tariff question is vital question."

"Are you willing to say anything on the Presidential question?" "No, I have said in my speeches in Iowa all I have to say on that subject, and I have said nothing to what I said there, and I have not changed my mind since then. You must expect me to make a few speeches before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

"No, sir, but we would like very much to know here in Illinois who is to oppose them. Logan or Secretary Tilden? Or will you be the candidate of the party?" "We simply ask for information on their account."

"Will Mr. McLaughlin here say that you see two Democratic candidates for the Presidency?" "Yes, Mr. E. B. Morgan and John M. Palmer, who will oppose, perhaps, your Republican candidates. Chicago is the best information in the country of persons anywhere on the topic of interest, and I am here on business trip to make a few questions before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

Will Serve as a Warning.
Rockport, Mo., Sept. 21.—The jury in the murder case of George W. Glynn returned a verdict yesterday morning. They found Glynn guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced him to hang on the gallows at 10 o'clock to-morrow. The case had been on trial for a week, and had excited considerable interest. Glynn was a police officer in this city and went to arrest Lewis White while he was drunk and disorderly. He was shot and killed by White. The jury was composed of twelve men, and the trial was held in the court house.

A Human Phenomenon.
YANOWITZ, Ill., Sept. 21.—Mrs. J. F. Gayden, residing near Shobonier, this county, gave birth last week to a child that is indeed a remarkable freak of nature. Its legs are behind instead of in front, the legs doubling forward in place of backward on the back is a freak of nature. It is a child in which there is a lot of large enough to insert three fingers. There are also several protrusions on the child's body. Its general health seems to be good, and it is able to crawl. It is a large number of curious people visit the little stranger daily.

Made a Poor Start.
Mr. CARMEL, Ill., Sept. 21.—John Storn, living near Lagoona, Ind., was arrested in this city by the marshal Wednesday night, having in his possession a horse that had been stolen from Decatur. He is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail.

Wood for Winter.
Solve wood! Cord wood! Chunks for heating alone! Wood any way you wish it, delivered to any part of the city. Leave orders to F. D. Caldwell, or send orders by telephone to No. 130. G. W. EMBERT. 10-22-dlm

This only way for you to realize our Immense Bargains in Clothing is to call and see for yourself. Our goods are all new, stylish, well made, durable, reliable, and cheap. Come. CHAPMAN. W. O. T. U. Attention is especially called to our regular meetings, viz: Gospel meeting at 7:30 p. m. on Thursdays, and business meeting at 8 p. m. on Thursdays. M. M. SANDHART, Secy. Ho FOR SCHOOL! Lunch Baskets in great variety and very cheap just received. LIND & SCHOENES. Aug. 28-dit

Special Dispatches

POINTS POLITICAL

Ex-Governor Hendricks Views on the Iowa and Ohio Campaigns.

Absolute Prohibition the Republican Party's Cry in Iowa—The Whole Democratic Ticket in that State Likely to be Elected—Negroes in Convention—News Summary.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—"Yes, I have just returned from the Iowa campaign," said Ex-Governor T. A. Hendricks at the Grand Pacific yesterday. "I cannot consent to be interviewed, however, for I have nothing to say now. Oh, yes, the temperance question is the most important in the Iowa campaign. The Republican party is taking the prohibition side of the question. Formerly there was a high prohibition taxation on the sale and manufacture of all liquors except ale, beer and wine. Now the Republicans propose to extend the tax to ale, wine and beer. I really don't know whether the same stand is taken by the Republican party in Ohio or not. Absolute prohibition is surely its cry in Iowa. The canvass in that state is being vigorously carried on by the Democrats, and they feel very confident of electing Mr. Kilne for governor. I went to Iowa to pay the political debts I owe Mr. Kilne. He has been very efficient in Indiana when we have been in political extremity. I therefore felt it my duty to do what I could for him at this time. Mr. Kilne will be elected beyond a doubt, and the rest of the Democratic ticket has, I consider, every reason to be confident of election. I was amazed and delighted with the increasing prosperity and wealth of Iowa. It is difficult to give any sort of adequate idea of its great agricultural productiveness. It is truly a great state."

POLITICS IN MASSACHUSETTS.
"What do you suppose was Henry L. Pierce's reason for leaving the Republican nomination in Massachusetts?" "I really don't know what to think about it. It may be politically significant, but we cannot tell that yet. Butler will be re-elected, I think, and he is popular, and gets the vote of the masses of the people of both parties. He is a go-ahead, daring, brilliant fellow, very much like your Mayor. He is a man who will keep right on in his course, without regard to whom he tramples on. He is ordinarily successful and always popular. I have heard that Butler refused to run against Pierce. None of them can beat Butler, however."

"What about the Ohio campaign, Mr. Hendricks?" "I can say nothing to the point on that subject, but I have not been in Ohio or seen any Ohio men since the campaign began, though the Democrats are cheerful there. I believe."

"The issue of the Ohio campaign is to be the tariff question," said Editor J. B. McLaughlin, of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, who was enjoying the conversation of the affable second-hand of the "old clock." "For revenue purposes, Congressmen Frank Hard and Mr. McLaughlin are in the state." "I am not sure that little old fellow, on which hinges the great issue of the two parties," "The tariff question is vital question."

"Are you willing to say anything on the Presidential question?" "No, I have said in my speeches in Iowa all I have to say on that subject, and I have said nothing to what I said there, and I have not changed my mind since then. You must expect me to make a few speeches before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

"No, sir, but we would like very much to know here in Illinois who is to oppose them. Logan or Secretary Tilden? Or will you be the candidate of the party?" "We simply ask for information on their account."

"Will Mr. McLaughlin here say that you see two Democratic candidates for the Presidency?" "Yes, Mr. E. B. Morgan and John M. Palmer, who will oppose, perhaps, your Republican candidates. Chicago is the best information in the country of persons anywhere on the topic of interest, and I am here on business trip to make a few questions before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

Will Serve as a Warning.
Rockport, Mo., Sept. 21.—The jury in the murder case of George W. Glynn returned a verdict yesterday morning. They found Glynn guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced him to hang on the gallows at 10 o'clock to-morrow. The case had been on trial for a week, and had excited considerable interest. Glynn was a police officer in this city and went to arrest Lewis White while he was drunk and disorderly. He was shot and killed by White. The jury was composed of twelve men, and the trial was held in the court house.

A Human Phenomenon.
YANOWITZ, Ill., Sept. 21.—Mrs. J. F. Gayden, residing near Shobonier, this county, gave birth last week to a child that is indeed a remarkable freak of nature. Its legs are behind instead of in front, the legs doubling forward in place of backward on the back is a freak of nature. It is a child in which there is a lot of large enough to insert three fingers. There are also several protrusions on the child's body. Its general health seems to be good, and it is able to crawl. It is a large number of curious people visit the little stranger daily.

Made a Poor Start.
Mr. CARMEL, Ill., Sept. 21.—John Storn, living near Lagoona, Ind., was arrested in this city by the marshal Wednesday night, having in his possession a horse that had been stolen from Decatur. He is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail.

Wood for Winter.
Solve wood! Cord wood! Chunks for heating alone! Wood any way you wish it, delivered to any part of the city. Leave orders to F. D. Caldwell, or send orders by telephone to No. 130. G. W. EMBERT. 10-22-dlm

This only way for you to realize our Immense Bargains in Clothing is to call and see for yourself. Our goods are all new, stylish, well made, durable, reliable, and cheap. Come. CHAPMAN. W. O. T. U. Attention is especially called to our regular meetings, viz: Gospel meeting at 7:30 p. m. on Thursdays, and business meeting at 8 p. m. on Thursdays. M. M. SANDHART, Secy. Ho FOR SCHOOL! Lunch Baskets in great variety and very cheap just received. LIND & SCHOENES. Aug. 28-dit

Special Dispatches

POINTS POLITICAL

Ex-Governor Hendricks Views on the Iowa and Ohio Campaigns.

Absolute Prohibition the Republican Party's Cry in Iowa—The Whole Democratic Ticket in that State Likely to be Elected—Negroes in Convention—News Summary.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—"Yes, I have just returned from the Iowa campaign," said Ex-Governor T. A. Hendricks at the Grand Pacific yesterday. "I cannot consent to be interviewed, however, for I have nothing to say now. Oh, yes, the temperance question is the most important in the Iowa campaign. The Republican party is taking the prohibition side of the question. Formerly there was a high prohibition taxation on the sale and manufacture of all liquors except ale, beer and wine. Now the Republicans propose to extend the tax to ale, wine and beer. I really don't know whether the same stand is taken by the Republican party in Ohio or not. Absolute prohibition is surely its cry in Iowa. The canvass in that state is being vigorously carried on by the Democrats, and they feel very confident of electing Mr. Kilne for governor. I went to Iowa to pay the political debts I owe Mr. Kilne. He has been very efficient in Indiana when we have been in political extremity. I therefore felt it my duty to do what I could for him at this time. Mr. Kilne will be elected beyond a doubt, and the rest of the Democratic ticket has, I consider, every reason to be confident of election. I was amazed and delighted with the increasing prosperity and wealth of Iowa. It is difficult to give any sort of adequate idea of its great agricultural productiveness. It is truly a great state."

POLITICS IN MASSACHUSETTS.
"What do you suppose was Henry L. Pierce's reason for leaving the Republican nomination in Massachusetts?" "I really don't know what to think about it. It may be politically significant, but we cannot tell that yet. Butler will be re-elected, I think, and he is popular, and gets the vote of the masses of the people of both parties. He is a go-ahead, daring, brilliant fellow, very much like your Mayor. He is a man who will keep right on in his course, without regard to whom he tramples on. He is ordinarily successful and always popular. I have heard that Butler refused to run against Pierce. None of them can beat Butler, however."

"What about the Ohio campaign, Mr. Hendricks?" "I can say nothing to the point on that subject, but I have not been in Ohio or seen any Ohio men since the campaign began, though the Democrats are cheerful there. I believe."

"The issue of the Ohio campaign is to be the tariff question," said Editor J. B. McLaughlin, of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, who was enjoying the conversation of the affable second-hand of the "old clock." "For revenue purposes, Congressmen Frank Hard and Mr. McLaughlin are in the state." "I am not sure that little old fellow, on which hinges the great issue of the two parties," "The tariff question is vital question."

"Are you willing to say anything on the Presidential question?" "No, I have said in my speeches in Iowa all I have to say on that subject, and I have said nothing to what I said there, and I have not changed my mind since then. You must expect me to make a few speeches before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

"No, sir, but we would like very much to know here in Illinois who is to oppose them. Logan or Secretary Tilden? Or will you be the candidate of the party?" "We simply ask for information on their account."

"Will Mr. McLaughlin here say that you see two Democratic candidates for the Presidency?" "Yes, Mr. E. B. Morgan and John M. Palmer, who will oppose, perhaps, your Republican candidates. Chicago is the best information in the country of persons anywhere on the topic of interest, and I am here on business trip to make a few questions before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

Will Serve as a Warning.
Rockport, Mo., Sept. 21.—The jury in the murder case of George W. Glynn returned a verdict yesterday morning. They found Glynn guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced him to hang on the gallows at 10 o'clock to-morrow. The case had been on trial for a week, and had excited considerable interest. Glynn was a police officer in this city and went to arrest Lewis White while he was drunk and disorderly. He was shot and killed by White. The jury was composed of twelve men, and the trial was held in the court house.

A Human Phenomenon.
YANOWITZ, Ill., Sept. 21.—Mrs. J. F. Gayden, residing near Shobonier, this county, gave birth last week to a child that is indeed a remarkable freak of nature. Its legs are behind instead of in front, the legs doubling forward in place of backward on the back is a freak of nature. It is a child in which there is a lot of large enough to insert three fingers. There are also several protrusions on the child's body. Its general health seems to be good, and it is able to crawl. It is a large number of curious people visit the little stranger daily.

Made a Poor Start.
Mr. CARMEL, Ill., Sept. 21.—John Storn, living near Lagoona, Ind., was arrested in this city by the marshal Wednesday night, having in his possession a horse that had been stolen from Decatur. He is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail.

Wood for Winter.
Solve wood! Cord wood! Chunks for heating alone! Wood any way you wish it, delivered to any part of the city. Leave orders to F. D. Caldwell, or send orders by telephone to No. 130. G. W. EMBERT. 10-22-dlm

This only way for you to realize our Immense Bargains in Clothing is to call and see for yourself. Our goods are all new, stylish, well made, durable, reliable, and cheap. Come. CHAPMAN. W. O. T. U. Attention is especially called to our regular meetings, viz: Gospel meeting at 7:30 p. m. on Thursdays, and business meeting at 8 p. m. on Thursdays. M. M. SANDHART, Secy. Ho FOR SCHOOL! Lunch Baskets in great variety and very cheap just received. LIND & SCHOENES. Aug. 28-dit

Special Dispatches

POINTS POLITICAL

Ex-Governor Hendricks Views on the Iowa and Ohio Campaigns.

Absolute Prohibition the Republican Party's Cry in Iowa—The Whole Democratic Ticket in that State Likely to be Elected—Negroes in Convention—News Summary.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—"Yes, I have just returned from the Iowa campaign," said Ex-Governor T. A. Hendricks at the Grand Pacific yesterday. "I cannot consent to be interviewed, however, for I have nothing to say now. Oh, yes, the temperance question is the most important in the Iowa campaign. The Republican party is taking the prohibition side of the question. Formerly there was a high prohibition taxation on the sale and manufacture of all liquors except ale, beer and wine. Now the Republicans propose to extend the tax to ale, wine and beer. I really don't know whether the same stand is taken by the Republican party in Ohio or not. Absolute prohibition is surely its cry in Iowa. The canvass in that state is being vigorously carried on by the Democrats, and they feel very confident of electing Mr. Kilne for governor. I went to Iowa to pay the political debts I owe Mr. Kilne. He has been very efficient in Indiana when we have been in political extremity. I therefore felt it my duty to do what I could for him at this time. Mr. Kilne will be elected beyond a doubt, and the rest of the Democratic ticket has, I consider, every reason to be confident of election. I was amazed and delighted with the increasing prosperity and wealth of Iowa. It is difficult to give any sort of adequate idea of its great agricultural productiveness. It is truly a great state."

POLITICS IN MASSACHUSETTS.
"What do you suppose was Henry L. Pierce's reason for leaving the Republican nomination in Massachusetts?" "I really don't know what to think about it. It may be politically significant, but we cannot tell that yet. Butler will be re-elected, I think, and he is popular, and gets the vote of the masses of the people of both parties. He is a go-ahead, daring, brilliant fellow, very much like your Mayor. He is a man who will keep right on in his course, without regard to whom he tramples on. He is ordinarily successful and always popular. I have heard that Butler refused to run against Pierce. None of them can beat Butler, however."

"What about the Ohio campaign, Mr. Hendricks?" "I can say nothing to the point on that subject, but I have not been in Ohio or seen any Ohio men since the campaign began, though the Democrats are cheerful there. I believe."

"The issue of the Ohio campaign is to be the tariff question," said Editor J. B. McLaughlin, of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, who was enjoying the conversation of the affable second-hand of the "old clock." "For revenue purposes, Congressmen Frank Hard and Mr. McLaughlin are in the state." "I am not sure that little old fellow, on which hinges the great issue of the two parties," "The tariff question is vital question."

"Are you willing to say anything on the Presidential question?" "No, I have said in my speeches in Iowa all I have to say on that subject, and I have said nothing to what I said there, and I have not changed my mind since then. You must expect me to make a few speeches before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

"No, sir, but we would like very much to know here in Illinois who is to oppose them. Logan or Secretary Tilden? Or will you be the candidate of the party?" "We simply ask for information on their account."

"Will Mr. McLaughlin here say that you see two Democratic candidates for the Presidency?" "Yes, Mr. E. B. Morgan and John M. Palmer, who will oppose, perhaps, your Republican candidates. Chicago is the best information in the country of persons anywhere on the topic of interest, and I am here on business trip to make a few questions before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

Will Serve as a Warning.
Rockport, Mo., Sept. 21.—The jury in the murder case of George W. Glynn returned a verdict yesterday morning. They found Glynn guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced him to hang on the gallows at 10 o'clock to-morrow. The case had been on trial for a week, and had excited considerable interest. Glynn was a police officer in this city and went to arrest Lewis White while he was drunk and disorderly. He was shot and killed by White. The jury was composed of twelve men, and the trial was held in the court house.

A Human Phenomenon.
YANOWITZ, Ill., Sept. 21.—Mrs. J. F. Gayden, residing near Shobonier, this county, gave birth last week to a child that is indeed a remarkable freak of nature. Its legs are behind instead of in front, the legs doubling forward in place of backward on the back is a freak of nature. It is a child in which there is a lot of large enough to insert three fingers. There are also several protrusions on the child's body. Its general health seems to be good, and it is able to crawl. It is a large number of curious people visit the little stranger daily.

Made a Poor Start.
Mr. CARMEL, Ill., Sept. 21.—John Storn, living near Lagoona, Ind., was arrested in this city by the marshal Wednesday night, having in his possession a horse that had been stolen from Decatur. He is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail.

Wood for Winter.
Solve wood! Cord wood! Chunks for heating alone! Wood any way you wish it, delivered to any part of the city. Leave orders to F. D. Caldwell, or send orders by telephone to No. 130. G. W. EMBERT. 10-22-dlm

This only way for you to realize our Immense Bargains in Clothing is to call and see for yourself. Our goods are all new, stylish, well made, durable, reliable, and cheap. Come. CHAPMAN. W. O. T. U. Attention is especially called to our regular meetings, viz: Gospel meeting at 7:30 p. m. on Thursdays, and business meeting at 8 p. m. on Thursdays. M. M. SANDHART, Secy. Ho FOR SCHOOL! Lunch Baskets in great variety and very cheap just received. LIND & SCHOENES. Aug. 28-dit

Special Dispatches

POINTS POLITICAL

Ex-Governor Hendricks Views on the Iowa and Ohio Campaigns.

Absolute Prohibition the Republican Party's Cry in Iowa—The Whole Democratic Ticket in that State Likely to be Elected—Negroes in Convention—News Summary.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—"Yes, I have just returned from the Iowa campaign," said Ex-Governor T. A. Hendricks at the Grand Pacific yesterday. "I cannot consent to be interviewed, however, for I have nothing to say now. Oh, yes, the temperance question is the most important in the Iowa campaign. The Republican party is taking the prohibition side of the question. Formerly there was a high prohibition taxation on the sale and manufacture of all liquors except ale, beer and wine. Now the Republicans propose to extend the tax to ale, wine and beer. I really don't know whether the same stand is taken by the Republican party in Ohio or not. Absolute prohibition is surely its cry in Iowa. The canvass in that state is being vigorously carried on by the Democrats, and they feel very confident of electing Mr. Kilne for governor. I went to Iowa to pay the political debts I owe Mr. Kilne. He has been very efficient in Indiana when we have been in political extremity. I therefore felt it my duty to do what I could for him at this time. Mr. Kilne will be elected beyond a doubt, and the rest of the Democratic ticket has, I consider, every reason to be confident of election. I was amazed and delighted with the increasing prosperity and wealth of Iowa. It is difficult to give any sort of adequate idea of its great agricultural productiveness. It is truly a great state."

POLITICS IN MASSACHUSETTS.
"What do you suppose was Henry L. Pierce's reason for leaving the Republican nomination in Massachusetts?" "I really don't know what to think about it. It may be politically significant, but we cannot tell that yet. Butler will be re-elected, I think, and he is popular, and gets the vote of the masses of the people of both parties. He is a go-ahead, daring, brilliant fellow, very much like your Mayor. He is a man who will keep right on in his course, without regard to whom he tramples on. He is ordinarily successful and always popular. I have heard that Butler refused to run against Pierce. None of them can beat Butler, however."

"What about the Ohio campaign, Mr. Hendricks?" "I can say nothing to the point on that subject, but I have not been in Ohio or seen any Ohio men since the campaign began, though the Democrats are cheerful there. I believe."

"The issue of the Ohio campaign is to be the tariff question," said Editor J. B. McLaughlin, of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, who was enjoying the conversation of the affable second-hand of the "old clock." "For revenue purposes, Congressmen Frank Hard and Mr. McLaughlin are in the state." "I am not sure that little old fellow, on which hinges the great issue of the two parties," "The tariff question is vital question."

"Are you willing to say anything on the Presidential question?" "No, I have said in my speeches in Iowa all I have to say on that subject, and I have said nothing to what I said there, and I have not changed my mind since then. You must expect me to make a few speeches before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

"No, sir, but we would like very much to know here in Illinois who is to oppose them. Logan or Secretary Tilden? Or will you be the candidate of the party?" "We simply ask for information on their account."

"Will Mr. McLaughlin here say that you see two Democratic candidates for the Presidency?" "Yes, Mr. E. B. Morgan and John M. Palmer, who will oppose, perhaps, your Republican candidates. Chicago is the best information in the country of persons anywhere on the topic of interest, and I am here on business trip to make a few questions before Judge Drummond, etc., and have decided to talk to all newspaper men. I can't tell you what I have refused to say to Chicago."

Will Serve as a Warning.
Rockport, Mo., Sept. 21.—The jury in the murder case of George W. Glynn returned a verdict yesterday morning. They found Glynn guilty of murder in the first degree, and sentenced him to hang on the gallows at 10 o'clock to-morrow. The case had been on trial for a week, and had excited considerable interest. Glynn was a police officer in this city and went to arrest Lewis White while he was drunk and disorderly. He was shot and killed by White. The jury was composed of twelve men, and the trial was held in the court house.

A Human Phenomenon.
YANOWITZ, Ill., Sept. 21.—Mrs. J. F. Gayden, residing near Shobonier, this county, gave birth last week to a child that is indeed a remarkable freak of nature. Its legs are behind instead of in front, the legs doubling forward in place of backward on the back is a freak of nature. It is a child in which there is a lot of large enough to insert three fingers. There are also several protrusions on the child's body. Its general health seems to be good, and it is able to crawl. It is a large number of curious people visit the little stranger daily.

Made a Poor Start.
Mr. CARMEL, Ill., Sept. 21.—John Storn, living near Lagoona, Ind., was arrested in this city by the marshal Wednesday night, having in his possession a horse that had been stolen from Decatur. He is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail. He is but a young man, and comes of one of the best horse families, and last night confessed to the theft of the horse. He was charged with the theft of a horse, and he is held in the city jail.

Wood for Winter.
Solve wood! Cord wood! Chunks for heating alone! Wood any way you wish it, delivered to any part of the city. Leave orders to F. D. Caldwell, or send orders by telephone to No. 130. G. W. EMBERT. 10-22-dlm

This only way for you to realize our Immense Bargains in Clothing is to call and see for yourself. Our goods are all new, stylish, well made, durable, reliable, and cheap. Come. CHAPMAN. W. O. T. U. Attention is especially called to our regular meetings, viz: Gospel meeting at 7:30 p. m. on Thursdays, and business meeting at 8 p. m. on Thursdays. M. M. SANDHART, Secy. Ho FOR SCHOOL! Lunch Baskets in great variety and very cheap just received. LIND & SCHOENES. Aug. 28-dit

Special Dispatches

POINTS POLITICAL

Ex-Governor Hendricks Views on the Iowa and Ohio Campaigns.

Absolute Prohibition the Republican Party's Cry in Iowa—The Whole Democratic Ticket in that State Likely to be Elected—Negroes in Convention—News Summary.

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—"Yes, I have just returned from the Iowa campaign," said Ex-Governor T. A. Hendricks at the Grand Pacific yesterday. "I cannot consent to be interviewed, however, for I have nothing to say now. Oh, yes, the temperance question is the most important in the Iowa campaign. The Republican party is taking the prohibition side of the question. Formerly there was a high prohibition taxation on the sale and manufacture of all liquors except ale, beer and wine. Now the Republicans propose to extend the tax to ale, wine and beer. I really don't know whether the same stand is taken by the Republican party in Ohio or not. Absolute prohibition is surely its cry in Iowa. The canvass in that state is being vigorously carried on by the Democrats, and they feel very confident of electing Mr. Kilne for governor. I went to Iowa to pay the political debts I owe Mr. Kilne. He has been very efficient in Indiana when we have been in political extremity. I therefore felt it my duty to do what I could for him at this time. Mr. Kilne will be elected beyond a doubt, and the rest of the Democratic ticket has, I consider, every reason to be confident of election. I was

Revolving Sign, Post Office Block.

Water street
ring 4471

NSBLOK

Bank. Sp
into and Chas

Full course of and Modern Language of of Music, Hon
partment. MEN
Buckton Street, Ch
Aug. 25-11m